Dear Ms. Dortch:

In the latest of many anticompetitive attacks across multiple proceedings,¹ Viasat, Inc. continues its misguided effort to insert itself in the Commission staff's review Space Exploration Technologies Corp.'s ("SpaceX's") Rural Digital Opportunity Fund long-form application. Undeterred by Commission rules, Viasat ignores yet again that the Commission specifically directed the FCC staff—not competitors—to review the merits of winning bidders' applications. SpaceX has welcomed that staff review, and will continue to work within that Commission-mandated process—rather than the sideshow in which Viasat would prefer to indulge—to demonstrate that it will meet all of its RDOF obligations.

Sincerely,

/s/ David Goldman
